SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR ASSIGNMENT SCHEDULE

Assignment #1: JOURNAL QUESTIONS

- Unit 1: Questions 1-8
- Unit 2: Questions 9-13
- Unit 3: Questions 14-18
- Unit 4: Questions 19-23

Once a week, with breaks along the way, you will receive a question to ponder. Please take time to answer these questions along the way. Your reply to each question should not exceed one (1) typed page. It is not possible to answer these questions incorrectly. There is no right or wrong answer. The questions are hopefully helping you to think about areas you may not have considered in the past or may consider now from a different perspective.

Assigned: First class of each Unit

Due: Last class of each Unit*

Note: All Journal Questions assigned during a Unit are due on the last class of that Unit.*

Assignment #2: SPIRITUAL AUTOBIOGRAPHY

For this assignment, you will be required to hand in a written report on your exploration of spirituality in your life. Feel free to use your creativity in terms of how you format your spiritual autobiography but try to include information on such things as:

- religion of origin, if any
- ways you may have challenged your religion of origin when growing up
- any religious wounding experiences
- your perception of God and how it might have changed as you have evolved, your current relationship with God
- your current relationship with the non-physical spiritual realms, i.e., saints, spirit guides, angels, nature spirits, animal totems, etc.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR TRAINING PROGRAM

Group SD-Z Schedule 2022-2023

Updated: September 28, 2022

- dark night of the soul experiences or spiritual crises
- possible re-connections with faith traditions from your youth
- spiritual awakenings along the way
- current spiritual philosophies and practices and current spiritual orientation

This should be a short story of your life, but from the perspective of how you have experienced Spirit in your life and how it moves in and through you.

No more than 3 typed pages, double-spaced.

Assigned: Wed., Sep. 21, 2022

Due: Wed., Jan. 4, 2023

Assignment #3: DIVERSITY REFLECTION

For this assignment, you will be required to hand in a written report on your reflections about diversity. Reflections can include what makes each of us unique, our backgrounds, personality, life experiences and beliefs, - a combination of our differences that shape our view of the world, our perspective and our approach. You may want to explore diversity as it applies to gender, race, ethnicity, age, sexuality, language, educational, background, religious beliefs, and so on and examine the different types of diversity: internal, external, organizational, and worldview.

Assigned: Wed., Oct. 12, 2022

Due: Wed., Nov. 2, 2022

Assignment #4: CREATING AN ALTAR / SACRED SPACE

Take a picture of an altar/sacred space that you have created in your home or office and do a one page write-up (12 point-font). Things to consider for the design of your altar:

- Direction it's facing. What room is it in?
- Use of the 4 elements: Earth, water, fire & air
- Theme(s)
- Spiritual symbols involved
- Activating ingredients: i.e.) incense, water, crystals, candles,
- Sound i.e.) bells, tingshas
- Clearing the space either with sound, smudge, essential oils, etc.
- Offerings
- Use of icons, statuary, pictures and mementos

Assigned: Wed., Oct. 12, 2022

Due: Wed., Nov. 2, 2022

Assignment #5: CLOSING RITUAL

Design a closing ritual for your class no longer than 1 to 1 ½ hours long. We should be finished by 8:30 pm. You will need to meet as a group perhaps before class a few times to design the ritual. In your group meetings, it can be a good idea to have a rotating chairperson to guide the process, move the meeting along and help get decisions made.

- Determine the themes and stages of your ritual. Energy circle, clearing of aura and space, intent and purpose of ritual, middle stages, themes and closure.
- Remember a ritual is like a symphony that has a beginning, middle and end. How will you peak or crescendo the energies?
- What are the moods of your ritual and what energy states do you wish to create?
- Draw a blueprint up for your ritual that provides an outline. You may put this on the whiteboard if you wish so that everyone has a map.
- Decide the roles that you will play in the ritual. Who facilitates what part and who will assist that facilitator. Certain function and roles should be delegated i.e.) lighting, music, etc. Remember that the facilitator sets the mood for the ritual so that they give permission to let others make a meaningful connection whether it is sacred, emotional, playful, fun, etc.
- What tools and props will you be working with?
- What instruments or music will you use? You can borrow the schools instruments.
- Build an altar or art piece to leave behind in the room as a blessing for the college and future students.
- Students provide a potluck afterwards: Munchies & beverages. Wine/beer is allowed.
- Gord Riddell, Linda Kuschnir, Maria Gallé and Sarah Clarke will attend. You may also invite other internal staff and other teachers you have had throughout the year.

Please note: It is a requirement to participate in the preparation of your group ritual, as well as to attend in order to graduate from the Spiritual Director Program.

Assigned: Wed., Feb. 8, 2023

Due: Wed., Jun. 21, 2023

Assignment #6: CASE STUDIES

For those enrolled in only the Spiritual Director Training Program, you will be required to complete 9 (nine) case studies to graduate (along with attendance and assignment requirements) and obtain a diploma. You will be doing some role plays in class to help prepare for this assignment. You will need to meet with an assigned Spiritual Director Case Supervisor to review screening of clients, client intake documentation, case study reports for Spiritual Director case studies.

When handing in case studies, documentation submitted must include your name & student number as Spiritual Director Intern and your case study client's initials only.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR TRAINING PROGRAM

Group SD-Z Schedule 2022-2023

Updated: September 28, 2022

You will be provided with the format to use for completion of your Spiritual Director case studies. You must also meet with your Case Supervisor to review the case study procedure in more detail, as well as receive support as you work on completing your case studies.

While you conduct spiritual direction with your clients, you will be considered a Spiritual Director Intern. Suitable clients for spiritual direction (also called Directees) are often looking for direction in the bigger scheme of their lives as opposed to working through particular emotional issues as is often done in spiritual psychotherapy.

At the same time, there can be a significant overlap between spiritual psychotherapy and spiritual direction. We would say that all psychotherapy is spiritual but in spiritual direction you are often dealing explicitly with spiritual issues, higher purpose, soul learning and soul evolution themes.

Some of the themes that may come up include: religious wounding from religion of origin, challenges around changes in religious beliefs or spiritual practices, religious prejudice, higher purpose, spiritual perfectionism, or any current issues clients are dealing with that call for a higher perspective (e.g. a spiritual dimension to a circumstance or situation) or a questioning about how spirit might be directing them in their lives. It is important to remember that spiritual direction is not about taking a client to a place of spiritual bypass prematurely.

If your spiritual direction client is at a point of needing to do healing on their emotional wounds, refer them to the Transformational Arts Psychotherapy Clinic or to a psychotherapist before taking them on as a spiritual direction case study client and consider waiting to do spiritual direction until after they have addressed their emotional wounds to some extent.

All the best with completing our Spiritual Director case studies!
